Dear Judge Swain:

We represent Plaintiffs in the above-referenced case. On behalf of all the parties, I am writing to inform the Court that the parties have settled in principal. Plaintiffs will file all appropriate paperwork with the Court, as soon as the documents have been completed.

A conference with the Court has been set for December 5, 2007. For the reasons stated above, the parties respectfully request that this conference be adjourned sine die. There have been no previous requests for extensions of time.

Respectfully submitted,

Richard J. Guida
